Lodge Unit Plans 'Luau'

The atmosphere of the South Sea Islands will be transported "lock, stock and palm tree" to the Torrance Moose lodge home, 1744 W. Carson St., Saturday, May 9, at 7 p.m., for the presentation of "Hawaiian Nightmare" by the Women of the Moose auxiliary, Mrs. Thomas Jenkins, chapter senior regent, announced this week.

A sword dance presented by a Polynesian prince will be a featured part of the evening's entertainment. Several other Polynesian acts will be presented before, during and after the luau-type dinner prepared by the Moose chef. An orchestra will provide music for dancing for the lei-decked people attending the "Hawaiian Nightmare" program. Island costumes are optional.

Admission to the Moose program is by reservation only. Mrs. Jack Koshak and Mrs. Jenkins are the two members of the Moose chapter reservations committee.

Native Yuccas To Be Topic

Regular meeting of the Metropolitan Cactus and Succulent Society will be held Friday, May 8, at 7:30 p.m. at the William Anderson school, 4110 W. 154th St., Lawndale. Lou Waterman will be the speaker on the topic "Native Yuccas."

There will also be a plant swap and refreshments. A board meeting will be held at 7 p.m.

Greek Pastry Featured at Bake Sales

Doreas Philoptochos Society will hold its second annual bake sale for Mother's Day on Saturday, May 9, beginning at 10 a.m. The sale will be under way in front of the market at 17500 S. Crenshaw Blvd., Torrance; 1516 S. Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo; The Triangle, Redondo; and in the Palos Verdes Plaza.

Cakes will be inscribed with "Mother" and floral designs. There will also be doll cakes, hat cakes, basket cakes, sweet breads, nut breads, Brownies, and plain cakes.

Special feature will be exotic Grecian pastries, Baklava, Kariopeta, Melomacaronia, Koulouria, Diptles, etc. These pastries are made of the finest ingredients from recipes handed down through generations.

This society of Greek women, which was organized a year ago, is a non-profit organization, with entire proceeds of all projects going to charity.

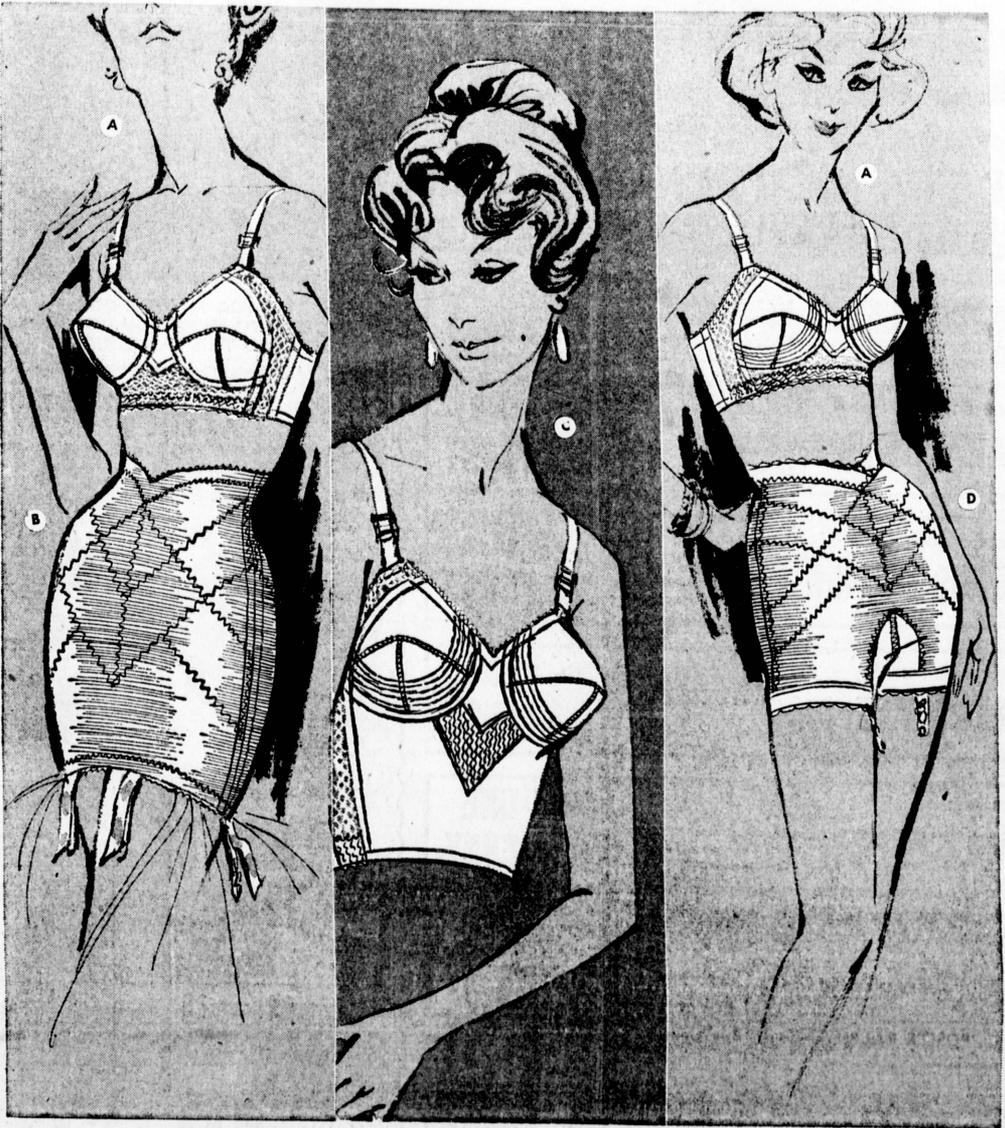

The committee headed by Mrs. Speero Papas, chairman, and Mrs. Chris Elioulos, co-chairman, includes Mmes. Richard Nelson, James Orfano, Tom Vanides, Gus Morris, Peter Poulos, Peter Georgouses, John Donlou, Gus Doxakis, William Kotarinos, Nick Karaly and Despina Chalckson.

Mothers Club

Nativity School Mothers club met at the parish hall for their monthly session April 14. Rev. Joseph K. McArdle, pastor, introduced Rev. John E. O'Dou, S. J. of Loyola University whose timely discussion dealt with the important role parents play in molding their children's future.

He stressed the fact that discipline expresses love and is imperative if parents are to receive the respect of their children through the elementary and high school grades.

Mrs. Frank Kristufek, president, presided at the business meeting
